Admiral Stansfield Turner
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
P. O. 20505
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Turner,

It certainly was a pleasure talking with you on the phone the other day. I can't tell you how happy I am that you have consented to take the time from your busy schedule to write several letters of recommendation for me. I look forward to meeting you in the future when I will have the opportunity to thank you in person.

I am sending you the following supplemental information which you may find helpful in augmenting your letters of recommendation:

Thank you very much for your willingness to write these letters of recommendation for me. It is due to the active interest and support of people such as you that young men and women just starting their careers are encouraged to explore their full potential.

Sincerely,

P.S. Please write the following note at the bottom of each letter of recommendation pursuant to requirements of the law school: "I understand that has waived his right to inspect each letter of recommendation."
